

THE RECTOR'S DESK

Dear Friends of St. Francis Church,

I pray that you and your families are well! Today's gospel presents us with the parable of the unjust steward, called to give an account. He responds by acting with a worldly sort of "wisdom" called "carnal prudence," a mere simulation of the true virtue, since prudence is directed toward our purpose of eternal life with God, whereas carnal prudence seeks the attainment of worldly purposes.

Perhaps being reminded by this gospel of the reckoning which each will undergo, we are prompted to ask, as does one of the prayers of the mass, "What shall I render to the Lord, for all the things that he hath rendered to me?" (Ps. 115). Let us beg God in prayer for zeal and for the good will to cooperate with His grace, that we might do even more in striving for an eternal crown than do the worldly in striving for a perishable one. May the good God bless you and your families!

In the Love of the Holy Family, Jesus, Mary, and Joseph,

Fr. McCambridge, F.S.S.P.

Give an account of thy stewardship...
