

THE RECTOR'S DESK

Dear Friends of St. Francis Church,

I pray that you and your families are well! Today, we resume the masses from the season after Epiphany, delaying the Last Sunday after Pentecost until just before Advent. Here are consoling words concerning today's Gospel: "What Christ did for the stormy sea, He can also do for us, His members, who are tossed hither and thither by passions and temptations. His graces will bring calm to us, and conduct us to the harbor of eternal safety. He will bring help to us who are 'set in the midst of dangers so great, that, by reason of the frailty of our nature, we of ourselves cannot withstand'" (Cathedral Daily Missal). Let us take courage in these thoughts, and be confident in Christ! May the good God bless you and your families!

In the Love of the Holy Family, Jesus, Mary, and Joseph,

Fr. McCambridge, F.S.S.P.

Jesus commands the winds and the sea
