

THE RECTOR'S DESK

Dear Friends of St. Francis Church,

I pray that you and your families are well! We have begun the month of November, the month dedicated especially to devotion for the Holy Souls in purgatory. After celebrating the Church Triumphant on the Feast of All Saints, we, the Church Militant, turn immediately to intercede for our brothers and sisters of the Church Suffering, on the Commemoration of All Souls. Knowing, on one hand, of their intense suffering, and on the other, of their inability to pray for themselves, we ought to be moved with compassion to intercede for them. Imagine the gratitude of the Poor Souls for those whose prayers ultimately free them to go to heaven! These saints will be dedicated intercessors for those whose prayers have brought them the happiness of the Beatific Vision. Let us strive to pray much for the Holy Souls, especially during this month devoted to them. May the good God bless you and your families!

In the Love of the Holy Family, Jesus, Mary, and Joseph,

Fr. McCambridge, F.S.S.P
